People hold onto heritage

History in cooking

By Lynne Locke

Although the United States has been considered a melting pot, people are now trying to hold onto their heritage and customs, according to Karen Downing of Upland who teaches a Chaffey College Community Education class on historic cooking.

Mrs. Downing said Americans eat foods from all different areas of the country but want each culture to remain distinct.

At the same time many people want to return to past ways of living including more emphasis on historic cooking, but most cooks don't like the work involved in those earlier ways, she noted.

In the eight-week historic cooking class, Mrs. Downing presents recipes modified to appeal to modern families. Class members also share historic cookbooks and recipes, 50 years or older, as well as displaying old cooking utensils.

Customs are discussed along with the cooking of a region. During lessons on Pennsylvania Dutch cooking, class members examined decorative rolling pins and individual family butter molds and learned about Easter and Christmas customs the Pennsylvania Dutch brought from Europe along with their recipes.

Mrs. Downing said the Pennsylvania Dutch recipe for Shoo-Fly Pie wasn't exactly a failure, but class members were disappointed. The pie "looked so beautiful, but no one got that excited about the taste," she noted and said the class decided modern families would like the historic recipe better if walnuts or pecans were added.

The class enjoyed the Shoo-Fly Pie lesson even though the taste was disappointing. "We can verify that flies are attracted to molasses," Mrs. Downing said noting the recipe's traditional name.

Sour dough cookery has been the favorite lesson, she said and noted sour-dough was also a favorite on the frontier.

Mrs. Downing said miners and trappers used sour dough cookery because they didn't have yeast available for cooking. The alcohol or "hootch" that gathers on top of the bubbly, fermenting mixture became a favorite with the Indians and may have been responsible for many disturbances on the frontier, she said.

A few members of the historic cooking class sampled the hootch but most decided to use their sour dough starter for more traditional dishes.

Other cooking lessons have included recipes the Indians taught the early colonialists. Without the help of the Indians the early settlers would have starved in a land of abundance, Mrs. Downing commented.

The natural abundance may have been responsible for the American Revolution, she said noting the colonists probably would not have had the strength and courage to rebel if they had depended upon Europe for their food.

Although food was plentiful in the new country, Americans had the reputation of being poor cooks. Mrs. Downing said Thomas Jefferson tried to bring French cookery to the United States and is responsible for many famous recipes.

Yankee and Southern-style cooking are highlighted in the class as well as Midwest and Western cooking, including Mexican foods such as tacos which have become standard dishes throughout the country.

Mrs. Downing noted the hardships of early American women who provided nourishing food for their families in frontier homes and crossing the country in wagons.

Pioneer women learned to use the movement of the wagon to churn their butter. Bread was set to rise in the wagon so it would be ready to bake when the family halted each night.

"I have always admired them. I just can't imagine what they went through," she added.

Class members also learned about Fanny Farmer who was responsible for exact measurements in recipes rather than the "pinch," "dash," and "handful" of former times.

Other class subjects include cosmopolitan dining represented by Del Monico's, early home dining etiquette, cooking schools and the history of baby feeding.

Most of the class members enjoy cooking as a hobby. Others are looking for different dishes to serve their families.

Mrs. Downing said working cooks can also use historic cooking and added she looks for recipes "with a little history" to serve while entertaining.

Mrs. Downing uses the American heritage Cookbook as a resource for the class. She also teaches microwave cooking and is working on a master's degree at Long Beach State College focusing on homemaking with efficient energy sources.

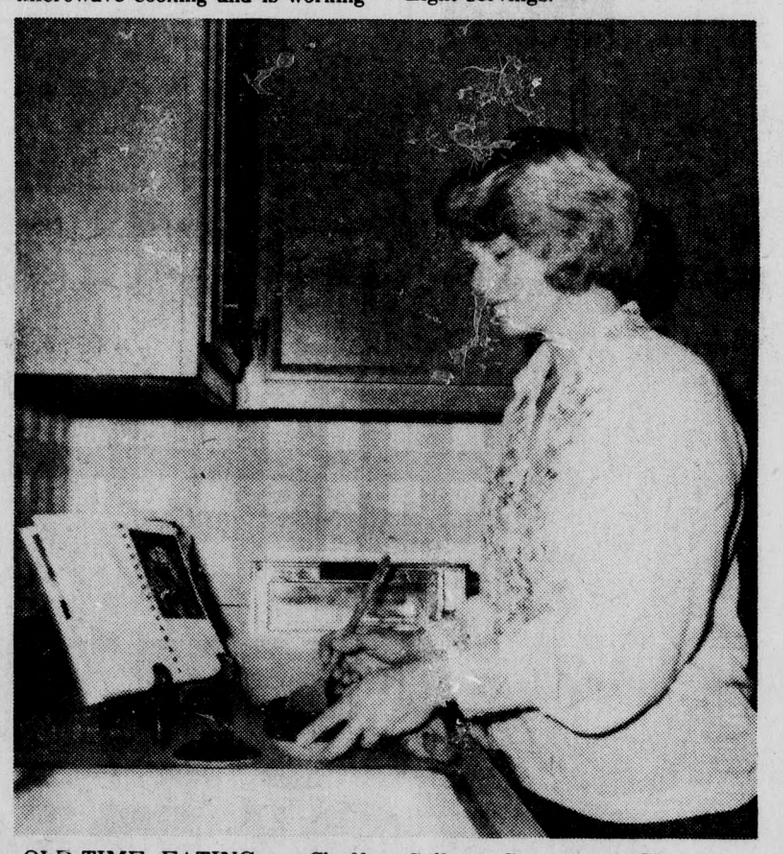

The class meets 9 a.m.-noon Thursdays through June 10 at Magnolia Recreation Center. The course, cosponsored by Chaffey College and Upland Recreation Department, will also be taught next fall.

Tipsy Parson

The Trifle was brought to America by the British colonists. In the United States the wine-soaked cake was called Tipsy Squire and Tipsy Parson.

3-oz. pkg. strawberry gelatin
3-oz. pkg. raspberry gelatin
10-oz. pkg. frozen raspberries (or strawberries), thawed
1 pound cake, cut up
½ cup port wine
1 pkg. vanilla pudding, prepared according to package directions
1 banana, sliced
1 cup whipping cream, whipped
Nuts and maraschino cherries.

Prepare gelatins separately, according to package directions. Allow gelatins to set to semi-gel stage. Add raspberries to the raspberry gelatin. Place half the cut-up cake in the bottom of a two-quart dish. Sprinkle with half the wine. Pour strawberry gelatin onto cake. Put remaining cake and wine on top of gelatin. Pour raspberry gelatin over cake and let set. Prepare vanilla pudding and let cool. Add sliced banana to pudding and pour over gelatin layers. Refrigerate four hours. Garnish with whipped cream, nuts and cherries before serving. Eight servings.

OLD-TIME EATING — Chaffey College Community Education cooking teacher Karen Downing stirs up some sour dough cookery. Mrs. Downing's class in historic cooking includes Indian, colonial, and frontier cookery as well as Pennsylvania Dutch, Southern and Mexican recipes. Many recipes have to be revised to please modern tastes and suit modern kitchens, but people want to keep their heritage, customs, and traditional recipes which are all highlighted during the Bicentennial celebration.

CETA funding to balance $8.9 million budget

Council oks funds for organizations

By Lynne Locke

Upland City Council Monday night approved $29,200 in allocations to community organizations after learning receipt of Comprehensive Employment and Training Act (CETA) funds will balance Upland's proposed $8.9 million budget for 1976-77.

The proposed budget included an estimated deficit of $67,000 before Upland officials received word of CETA funding through January 1977 for 13 employes.

The CETA grant frees $117,580 which had been committed to paying salaries for the 13 employes.

The Upland Chamber of Commerce received $17,000. The chamber allocation, the largest amount given to a community organization this year, represents a $1,000 reduction for the second year in a row. Chamber officials noted they have reduced dependence upon the city even during inflationary times.

The council, which refused to increase community allocations last year, approved increases totaling $3,130 for nine community organizations.

Allocations included West End Boys' Clubs $5,000 up from $4,000 last year; Chaffey Communities Cultural Center, $1,200 up from $1,000; and Wayne Fanning Alcohol Education Program, $1,250 up from $720.

Other allocations include West End Opera and West End Symphony $1,000 each up from $850; Suicide and Crisis Intervention Service, $850 up from $650; Town Affiliation Association $500 up from $400; and West End Oratorio, which was not funded last year, $500.

All the groups told the council increased requests were based on higher costs and expanded service.

In other recent action the council:

— Designated all of Upland's revenue-sharing funds ($110,713) to provide operational money for the Police Department.

— Awarded a $22,697 contract to J. and J. Sewer Co. of Chino for a sanitary sewer project on 14th Street West of Euclid Avenue.

— Approved a revised concept for the permanent Bicentennial display in the Civic Center. The new design includes a pool with a fountain, time capsule and four flagpoles for state and national flags as well as flags of Upland's sister cities of Mildura, Australia and Caborca, Mexico.

— Directed the city staff to continue supervising quality and rates for regular cable television service. City Attorney Donal Maroney said the council has no legal control over rates charged for special services such as the "Z" movie channel.

— Requested the city staff to study further a proposal to raise dog license fees from $2 for altered males and $3 for altered females to $4 for altered males and females and from $4 for unaltered males and $6 for unaltered females to $8 for unaltered males and females.

Councilwoman Ina Petokas said the raise was unfair to the few people who actually license their animals and noted the need to enforce licensing.

— Awarded a $69,558 contract to Laird Construction Co. Inc. for the improvement of Benson Avenue between Foothill Boulevard and 13th Street.

— Postponed until June 7 consideration of the Recreation Committee's recommendation that plans for the Greenbelt Park be approved and softball and baseball be allowed to begin development of their fields.

— Denied an appeal of the environmental assessment report for tentative tract 9301 and continued consideration of the actual tract map to the June 7 meeting.

The tentative tract map includes 22 lots on 19 acres southeast of San Antonio Avenue and 24th street in a single-family residential zone with a minimum lot size of 15,000 square feet.

— Neighbors have objected to placing backs or sides of homes facing them across 24th Street and feared the tract development would increase flooding of property south of the tract.

— Approved annexation of 10 acres of uninhabited land southeast of Wilson Avenue and the extension of 18th Street.

— Approved a tentative tract map for 34 lots on 20 acres northeast of Euclid Avenue and 23rd Street in a single-family residential zone with a minimum lot size of 20,000 square feet.

— Set a hearing 7 p.m. June 7 to consider weed abatement within the city.

In the back row, left, Karen Kleinman received a $750 scholarship while Sue Johnson earned second place honors with a $1,000 scholarship. They also were individually interviewed by a panel of six judges.

Trust aids pupils

Fifteen seniors from the Chaffey Union High School District are recipients of scholarships from The Chaffey Trust Fund, a fund established on Dec. 22, 1882

The presentation of these awards was held Tuesday following dinner at Red Hill Country Club, Cucamonga. The students, their parents, judges and trustees of the fund were in attendance. Arnold Anderson, secretary of The Chaffey Trust Fund, was master of ceremonies and made the scholarship presentations.

Three seniors each from Chaffey, Upland, Ontario, Montclair and Alta Loma high schools were selected due to their high academic records, participation in student activities, potential for collegiate success and personal written statements. Each was interviewed in a private session before six judges selected by the officers of the trust.

The 15 students were competing for the top four scholarships of $1,250, $1,000, $750 and $500 The 11 students remaining each received $350.

Clem Papazian of Upland High School was winner of the $1,250 scholarship. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Papazian of Upland and plans to enter Boston University, Boston, Mass., in September to become a physician.

The Chaffey Trust Fund officers are Anderson of Ontario, secretary, J.T. Waller of Upland and Stewart Chaffey of Carmel.

Judges were Ernest Wagner, J.T. Waller, Orville Garrison, Wally Gott, Mike Dirksen and Marge Gross.

The Chaffey Trust Fund predates the city of Ontario. In the original Ontario plan, established by George and William B. Chaffey, a townsite was created from the Southern Pacific Railway to G Street and from Campus Avenue to San Antonio Avenue in Ontario. The territory was divided into two and one-half acre "villa" lots, each fronting on well-defined streets. The plan included a provision to set aside the income from half of the 200 villa lots and half of the 768 town lots to create a permanent trust fund for the Chaffey College of Agriculture. In addition, 20 acres of land at Fourth Street and Euclid Avenue were given as the site of the proposed school, which opened in 1884.

During the next 14 years, the agricultural college underwent many changes, including a period of time under the trusteeship of USC. In 1903, three new trustees, George Chaffey, W.W. Smith and Walter M. Rose were appointed. The college dissolved and the high school became beneficiary of the trust. The consolidation of the Ontario and Upland School Districts into the Chaffey Union High School District occurred in 1911, with additional districts joining soon thereafter.

Edison has over 80 conservation tips. Here's #19.

CUT YOUR COOLING COST UP TO 40%.

Insulate your attic.

If your attic isn't properly insulated, you could be wasting money. Lots of money. Why? Because on hot days your attic is a storehouse of heat. This heat passes through your ceiling and into your rooms. Result: your air conditioning has to work longer and harder. And you end up paying the bill.

By insulating, or increasing the amount of insulation now in your attic, you may reduce your cooling costs as much as 40%—year after year. Your heating costs will also drop.

Based on today's prices, insulating an attic in a typical house runs between $200 and $300. And what better place to invest your money than in your own home?

Check with an insulation contractor or dealer today.

Free conservation booklet.

Conserving energy is still vital to our nation. Insulating your attic is one way to help. For many other ways to conserve energy, write for our free booklet, "Conservation," Edison, P.O. Box 800, Rosemead, CA 91770.

Upland boy wins prize

Loren Wingerd, 10, of Upland Elementary School is a regional winner in the Bicentennial essay contest sponsored by the Donald W. Reynolds Foundation, Inc.

Young Wingerd, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Wingerd of 690 Quince Ave., Upland, was the elementary school winner in the contest covering western San Bernardino County. His essay then went into the regional contest which covers California, Nevada, Washington and Hawaii.

As a regional winner, Wingerd received $100. He won $25 on the local level.

The young student's essay now will go into the elementary level of the grand prize division which covers 10 states in which Donrey properties are located. Should he win in the elementary contest, Wingerd will receive $300.

Other winners in the West End area competition were Marylisa Missakian, 13, in the junior high category. She is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Michael Missakian and a student at Pioneer Junior School in Upland, and Karen Loney, 16.

Legion honors two Upland High pupils

Two Upland High School juniors were chosen as representatives to the American Legion Auxiliary's (ALA) California Girls and Boys State, recently.

Julie Flammang, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Flammang, 1359 Quince Ave., was selected from an initial group of 60 girls, after being interviewed by a panel of counselors and teachers.

Edward Moseley, son of Mrs. E. S. Moseley Jr., 1747 N. San Antonio Ave., was picked from an initial group of 16 boys. After interviews, two finalists were reinterviewed by ALA members who honored Moseley as the school candidate.

California Girls and Boys State's purpose is to "inculcate a sense of individual obligation to the community, state and nation," according to an ALA pamphlet. It further explains ALA's wishes to "insure an intelligent and loyal citizenry and a clean, honest and impartial administration of all our government departments." The summer camp counselors hope to attain this goal by allowing the attending candidates to learn government procedures by simulations.

Mosely, attending the boys session June 19-26 in Sacramento, feels it's an honor. "I mean, they chose me out of all those junior guys. It'll be fun and a great challenge."

Alternates are Karen Loney and Paul Lindsey.

Students hear of law jobs from lawyers

Alta Loma Junior High School held a "Law Week" to emphasize the importance of that profession. Local Jaycees rank highly

Stroke danger

Don't smoke while working outdoors in cold weather, warns the American Heart Association. Tobacco constricts the blood vessels and so does cold air. The combination may be dangerous.

QUESTION: Can you tell me anything about the fire blight disease? K.L.

ANSWER: I contacted the General Service Director, Kenny Hoover and he informs me that fire blight is a bacterial disease that survives in blighted twigs and cankers. The bacteria is carried to the blossoms by bees, flies and other insects. In our area the most common plants susceptible to fire blight are flowering pear, apple, crabapple, pyracantha bush, and hawthorn shrub. When a plant or tree suddenly wilts and looks as though it was scorched by fire, it has fire blight. There are two methods of control: protect blossoms from infection by spraying at four or five-day intervals through the blossoming period with streptomycin spray; or, during summer, prune out and burn the diseased twigs and branches — cut well below the infected area. After each cut, sterilize the pruning tools and the cut surface with disinfectant. At this time we do have fire blight in our city

QUESTION: Can you tell us the duties of the fire chief? M.S.

ANSWER: Upland's fire chief is Leon Lamphear. Under general direction he plans, organizes, staffs, directs, coordinates and prepares and administers the budget for the Fire Department; reviews and analyzes a wide variety of statistics and information on fires and frequency of occurrence, projected city growth patterns, developments in the fields of fire prevention and suppression, fire organization and management techniques and related matters; drafts plans designed to satisfy future fire protection needs and increase operational efficiency; directs the conduct of special studies related to present or anticipated functions of the department; prepares or directs the preparation of proposals concerning departmental activities for consideration by the city manager; directs the development of inservice training programs to increase departmental efficiency and prepare employes for advancement; establishes policies, procedures and guidelines to be observed by subordinates; reviews activity records and general operation of the department to locate problem areas and increase efficiency; reviews orders for major projects, sets priorities and establishes work schedules; coordinates activities of the department with those of other city departments and works with department heads and the city manager in promoting the improvement of city services; resolves citizen complaints or problems concerning activities of the department which cannot be handled by subordinates; keeps the city manager advised of departmental activities through oral and written reports; represents the department at a variety of meetings where the subject affects or is of concern to the department; coordinates activities of the department with those of other fire units; and speaks before public and professional groups on the plans, objectives, policies and programs of the department.

Man-Caused Headaches Are Children-Caused

By Dr. W. P. Helzer, D.C.

To further the theory that many a chronically recurring headache originates in the neck we have studied headache prone children.

Dr. Wes Helzer, D.C.

They all had recurring headaches of adult type without apparent cause.

So many adult patients trace their chronic headaches to childhood and children's necks are subjected to hazards unknown to adults.

Children wrestle and their necks get twisted. Children fall from bicycles on their neck. Children can get hit on their neck with baseball bats and other sticks.

Pain and stiffness in the neck disappear in a day or two and the injury is forgotten. But that slight injury can be permanent and flower periodically into headaches.

The spine has a curve in it, the "Lordotic curve." A twisted neck could lessen or sharpen the curve. Or a mild neck injury could be to the ligaments.

The neck must be considered a prime suspect in every headache case of unknown origin in children as well as adults.

And pain killers aren't the answer for either adults or their offspring.

The Band-Aide approach to the recurring headache problem is ridiculous. Remember, you can't cover them forever.

(Note: Dr. Helzer maintains chiropractic offices at 108 East H Street, Ontario, telephone: 983-1711). (C) ARS 1975

In West End

New phone plan offered

Optional "lifeline" telephone service is now being offered to Ontario and Etiwanda area residents.

The Ontario and Etiwanda area covers virtually every city in the West End east of Pomona to Etiwanda. Telephone company officials are investigating the feasibility of initiating the system in the San Bernardino area in about five years.

The service, designed primarily for persons on a fixed income, places a limit on the number of local calls the user may make but offers a lower base rate than the standard telephone charge.

According to Jack M. King, public affairs administrator for General Telephone Co., the $20 million system making lifeline service possible in the local area started serving residents April 1, 1975.

Under lifeline, calls are measured by units of five minutes, with a minimum of one unit charged per call. Although the standard $5.75 telephone charge offers unlimited local calls, said King, lifeline offers 30 units, 30 calls per month each less than five minutes in duration, for a flat $3 per month.

King said calls can cover several units, for instance, a call lasting between six and ten minutes would be considered a two-unit call. Units exceeding 30 per month would cost 5 cents each.

Lifeline, according to King, can only be offered to single party subscriber and is not available to those on party lines.

The system is made possible by a measuring device called an accumulator, capable of scanning 4,000 telephone lines in 2 ½ seconds.

The service is an offshoot of a Public Utilities mandated Measured Local Service (MLS) for business services. King said MLS won't be operational until the PUC set date of Jan. 1, 1977.

'We Care' meets each Wednesday

"We Care," a supportive organization for divorced, separated or widowed men and women, is now implimenting a team leadership program.

Co-leading this week's meeting were Gene Barilotti of Upland and Clark Harris of Ontario. Future meetings will be co-conducted by all-female teams, as well as male-female co-leaders.

The Ontario "We Care" group is a chapter of the Foundation, and was started by David Hermes of San Diego.

Meetings are held every Wednesday at 7:30 p.m., at the First United Methodist Church, 918 N. Euclid Ave., Ontario.

Simon play slow starting

By Doug Riddle

The Gallery Theatre opened with another surefire Neil Simon comedy Friday night, but the powder was still a bit damp. Even with sterling performances by Keith Mills and Joe Dolan as the two creaky vaudeville once-greats, "The Sunshine Boys" didn't really shine until the second act. Even then we discovered that the real vaudeville team "par excellence" was Keith Mills and Lavinia Smith. She plays an altogether different kind of nurse for the ailing, aging vaudevillian. But we are ahead of our story.

Perhaps a word about the plot is in order. As is frequently the case with Simon's plays, any word about the plot is going to be a short one. The story is a simple one detailing the encounter after 11 years of animosity of two formerly-bright lights of the vaudeville stage. The occasion is a television special on the history of comedy, in which they are one of the more notable footnotes.

As we said, plot is not Neil Simon's strong hand. His forte is rather a keen sense of how extreme real people are. His pleasure is to put a few people in a small space and let them find their way out of some very human predicament. In the process we see ourselves undergoing the painful and hilarious rehearsal for living, knowing that vaudeville is certainly not dead because our own lives are rife with these unintentional one-liners.

Now, lest I philosophize you away from this show, I hasten to add that "The Sunshine Boys" is a funny play. If there is such a thing as poignant slapstick, this is it. And in the midst of it is some very good acting.

Lewis and Clark, the Sunshine Boys (Dolan and Mills) are convincing as the long split-up team, each facing decline in his own way. Willie Clark keeps hanging on, living on his monthly social security check and his enormous supply of pride, pretending that he is still a noteworthy actor, even though he can no longer remember even the names of the products he is supposed to sell in the commercials his milquetoasty nephew-agent (Douglas Dowd) finds for him.

Dowd plays the submissive and henpecked nephew entirely too well. At least I believe so, I was not able to hear all of his lines. When he was aiming at me, I quite enjoyed his harried picture of a man only too aware that he is not in control of the situation. I trust that by the time the weekend rolls around some volume will be added to his sound system.

It is the nephew who sets up the possible reunion of the Sunshine Boys for a mythical television network which they call "CBS." He contacts Willie's old partner, Lewis (Dolan) who totters on stage with charm and superb control. If for no other reason, you might see this one just to experience Dolan sitting down. Both he and Mills are masterful in their use of visual gags, and one of their best bits occurs with nearly no dialogue.

Another who seems quite at home in Simon's wonderland of jokery is Miss Smith, whom we have already mentioned. She moves with ease in this vehicle, and together with Mills turns his sick room into a kind of vaudeville stage.

In the act which the Sunshine Boys finally get together is another character of note: another nurse, played by Terri Vaught. She demonstrates wonderfully well why the National Organization of Women is not sponsoring a revival of vaudeville. I don't think that my pillow has that much stuffing, but then it doesn't have that shape either.

If you feel some kinship with the peculiar Neil Simon gag-filled vision of how the world operates (or doesn't), this production of "The Sunshine Boys" is just what you've been waiting for. Don't take your teenagers. The ones who were there looked as though they would rather have not. For tickets call (714) 982-5357. p.m. Fridays and Saturdays at the theater, 126 E. C St., Ontario.

AT MAGIC MOUNTAIN — The 5th Dimension will appear in concert 8 p.m. and 10 p.m. Saturday through Monday, Memorial day at Magic Mountain's Showcase Theatre. Afternoon entertainment this weekend will spotlight the park's red, white and blue Bicentennial revue, "Sing Out, Sweet Liberty." Other entertainment includes live rock music for dancing, the Magic Mountain Disco, and strolling street performers.

The first stars accepting invitations to attend are: Don "Red" Barry, Bob Steele, Lash LaRue, Monte Hale, Eddie Dean, Jimmy Wakely, Jim Bannon, Duncan Renaldo, Ray "Crash" Corrigan, Dick Foran, Buster Crabbe, I. Fossils

A spectacular slab of rock jammed with fossil sea shells 360 million years old is now on display at the Los Angeles County Museum of Natural History in Exposition Park.

The large slab was quarried in Morocco and polished in Belgium. It was obtained by the museum through a friend of King Hassan II of Morocco.

WHAT A WONDERFUL WAY TO LOSE FAT!
THE "MODEL-ETTS" WAY HELPS CURB YOUR APPETITE—HELPS YOU LOSE THAT EXTRA WEIGHT •NO CALORIE COUNTING! •NO EXERCISES! •NO SPECIAL DIETS!
Thanks to a group of New York doctors, you can now lose pounds of ugly fat without going on any special diet, without cutting out any special foods.
HELPS REDUCE HUNGRY MOMENTS
These New York doctors discovered a food adjuvant called "MODEL-ETTS."
"Model-etts" does remarkable things. It helps you cut down your caloric intake by a natural automatic curbing of the appetite and of the desire for foods, resulting automatically in a reduced intake of food.
Before "Model-etts" was offered to you, it was tested clinically by the doctors on a large group of non-glandular overweight men and women.
The doctors carefully checked results, and here is what they found:
1. Weight losses of 6 to 20 pounds without any ill effects whatsoever.
2. 96% of the men and women who used "Model-etts" lost weight.
"Model-etts" is absolutely safe. It is a food adjuvant—not a drug.
So, start today to shed those unwanted pounds and inches. If your condition is glandular or organic, see your doctor. "Model-etts" may help you stay on the diet you doctor recommends. Ask him about it.
You can get a two month's supply of "Model-etts" for $5.00 on money back guarantee. In clinical tests, "Model-etts" was 96% successful. "Model-etts" may not be 100% successful in all cases, but you take no risk in trying "Model-etts" on our Money Back Guarantee.
Come to General Nutrition to get "MODEL-ETTS." The sooner you start, the sooner you may have the loss of weight you yearn for.
No.787 Sounds too good to be true. BUT IT IS TRUE!
How Model etts Curbs Your Appetite
In the opinion of the supervising physician, based on the average of weight losses in the clinical tests, his calculations showed that 1 Model-etts Wafer has the hunger satisfying capacity of 1 pound boiled potatoes or 3 eggs or 3 slices of white bread, yet it contains only 6 calories.
2-month supply only $5.00

Rubinstein portraits

A selection of portraits of Madame Helena Rubinstein from the Helena Rubinstein Foundation will be on view on the third level of the Ahmanson Gallery at the Los Angeles County Museum of Art May 18 - June 20.

Painted over a period of 60 years, the portraits offer an insight into the personality of the cosmetics industry pioneer and beauty authority as interpreted by 20th-century artists such as Rene Bouche, Count Emmanuele Castelbarco, Salvador Dali, Raoul Dufy, Marie Laurencin, Louis Marcoussis, Roberto Montenegro, Candido Portinari, Graham Sutherland and Pavel Tchelitchew.

Highlights of the collection include Marie Laurencin's very feminine portrait of 1934; a gouache by Raoul Dufy painted in 1935 showing Madame Rubinstein in a blue sailor suit with a bright red bow; Salvador Dali's surrealistic portrait of 1942-43 depicting Madame Rubinstein chained to a cliff by ropes of her famous jewels; and probably her most famous portrait of all by Graham Sutherland. This portrait of Madame Rubinstein wearing a red brocade Balenciaga gown was painted in 1959 when she was 88 years old.

Helena Rubinstein's taste in art ranged from impressionist, School of Paris, and contemporary painting and sculpture to decorative arts and African and oceanic art, of which she assembled one of the greatest private collections.

Specially for the Los Angeles showing of the traveling exhibition of portraits, a selection of these African and oceanic wood sculptures is being lent to the museum from the Franklin Family Collection.

Included as examples of Madame Rubinstein's connoisseurship are Baule tribal drums, Bambara "chi-wara" dance crests, a Bakota reliquary figure, and a Fang four-faced mask. A Bangwa figure of a woman (a queen?) from Cameroon has long been esteemed as one of the finest known African wood sculptures.

Among oceanic objects once the property of Madame Rubinstein are a New Hebrides hand mask, a Maori house post with three carved figures, a Marquesas Islands club with "tiki" heads in each side. The latter once had a place of honor atop Madame Rubinstein's piano in her Paris residence.

African objects

A collection of unusual objects from Africa have been obtained by the Ethnic Arts Gift Shop at the Los Angeles County Museum of Natural History, 900 Exposition Blvd., Los Angeles.

The collection, which will be on sale during May, ranges from the traditional coiled baskets of Botswana and hand painted Senufu cloth of the Ivory Coast to a humorous hand-carved wooden snake from South Africa.

Begins clean-up work

Astara buys former Upland College site

Escrow has closed and Astara, a Los Angeles-based church and educational organization, has officially assumed ownership of the former Upland College campus site at Arrow Highway and San Antonio Avenue, Upland.

With the delivery of a check for $215,000 to West End Escrow in Ontario, Dr. Robert Chaney completed terms for the down payment on behalf of the organization cofounded by his wife Earlyne.

"Our members across the country and in the Upland area have responded tremendously to this project," said Dr. Chaney, "and the welcome given by our new neighbors has really been gratifying."

Mrs. Chaney noted that work has actually just begun for the non-profit religious group. "Our local members are busy organizing volunteer work-crews," she said, "and now begins the clean-up and painting needed before we can move our offices from Los Angeles."

The Chaneys said the official opening for the refurbished campus will be in October, the month Astara also celebrates its 25th Anniversary.

Already scheduled on October's program are:

—Dr. Marcus Bach, former head of the Department of Religion at the University of Iowa.

—Dr. William Parker and Elaine St. Johns, coauthors of "Prayer Can Change Your Life."

—Brad Steiger, syndicated newspaper columnist and metaphysical writer.

—Movie and television actress Anne Francis.

—Harold Sherman, author and founder of ESP Research Associates Foundation.

—Dr. Shafica Karagulla, prominent neuropsychiatrist and University of California, Los Angeles, faculty member.

An unofficial opening will be a series of five-day retreats to be held Monday through mid-afternoon Friday each week in August and September, conducted by Dr. Chaney and limited to 20 persons.

Christ Lutheran

A fourth group of new members so far in 1976 will be received Sunday at Christ Lutheran Church, 5500 Francis Ave., Chino. Some will be received at the early service, the others at the later service.

For the 8:15 a.m. and 10:45 a.m. services Dr. A. L. Plueger, pastor, will climax a series of messages on the First Epistle of Peter. There will be a Memorial Day observance during both.

The Adult Bible Forum, meeting at 9:30 a.m., plans to complete a sharing of the last chapter of John's First Epistle, led by the pastor. Bible classes for all ages will meet in the educational unit at the same time.

Calvary Baptist Church Schools plan celebration

Calvary Baptist Church and Schools will hold a "Bicentennial Day" July 4 on the church grounds in La Verne.

Festivities will begin at 9:45 a.m. and will emphasize the theme, "Praise God for Freedom."

The first event will be launching of unique message carrying balloons. The helium-filled balloons will be sent aloft as a Bicentennial proclamation to the nation of the importance of religious freedom in the United States.

A personalized Bicentennial souvenir will be given to each person in attendance at this early service.

The 11 a.m. hour will be highlighted by participation in the national "Ring The Bells of Freedom" ceremony. Immediately following this observance will be presentations of special music and a patriotic address by Dr. Phillip Bryan.

The afternoon festivities will begin with a colorful Bicentennial parade through the streets of La Verne.

After the parade, 5-7 p.m., La Verne's own official copy of the original Liberty Bell will be on display for viewing and ringing by all in attendance. Also offered will be free ice cream and watermellon, several choir specials and a church-school open house.

At 6:30 p.m. the day's celebration will be officially dedicated to the memorial of the Rev. Troy Mize, a distinguished Baptist minister who recently died after many years of service to California churches.

Following the dedication, Baptist churches throughout California will present awards to their pastors in recognition of the significant part these people and pastors across the country play in the preservation of American religious freedom.

The day's activities will be concluded by the presentation of "I Love America," a musical extravaganza telling the history of America and featuring soloists, special lighting, orchestra accompaniment and special staging.

All area residents are invited to attend.

Bible lesson, sermon set

"Ancient and Modern Necromancy, alias Mesmerism and Hypnotism, Denounced" is the subject of the Bible lesson-sermon at Christian Science services 10 a.m. Sunday.

The Scriptural text setting the theme for the service is from II Corinthians: "I fear, lest by any means, as the serpent beguiled Eve through his subtilty, so your minds should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ."

Citations from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy include this statement: "From Genesis to the Apocalypse, sin, sickness, and death, envy, hatred, and revenge, -all evil, -are typified by a serpent, or animal subtlety."

First Church of Christ, Scientist, Ontario, welcomes the public to their services at 1429 N. Euclid Ave. Sunday and the 8 p.m. Wednesday evening testimonial meeting.

Phil Enloe to sing at Baptist Temple

The Baptist Temple of San Dimas - La Verne will present Phil Enloe, internationally known gospel singer, in concert 7 p.m. June 3 at the church, located at 909 Juanita, La Verne.

In this 13-year singing ministry, Enloe has spent seven years as a member of several top name gospel quartets such as the Couriers, Blackwood Brothers Organization and the Imperials.

"Considered one of the greatest voices in sacred music today, he incorporates a three - octave range, which makes his music enjoyable to music lovers of all tastes," said a church spokesperson. He has sung throughout North America, South America, South Africa, and many European countries as well. The public is invited to attend. A nursery will be provided.

Know Your Carrier

Introducing: Tracy Eastin

Tracy Eastin is a newspaper carrier for the Montclair Tribune, one of six weekly newspapers printed by Bonita Publucations.

He has delivered newspapers for more than 1½ years. He throws about 90 papers a week in Montclair, in the area between the San Bernardino Freeway and San Jose Street, and between Ramona Avenue and the wash.

Tracy is a ninth-grade student at Montclair High School where he maintains average grades. His favorite subject is physical education and his favorite sport is track.

For his efforts as a carrier, Tracy has been rewarded with such prizes as a compass, knife and Bicentennial Silver Dollars.

He said having his route has provided him with extra money for clothes and entertainment. In his spare time he likes to ride his bicycle and skateboard.

Cleaning his room and helping with the yard work are jobs he does at home in addition to his job as carrier.

Tracy's two sisters and a brother also deliver newspapers in the area. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Eastin, have been employed as district advisors for Bonita.

If you are 10-14 years old or know of a boy or girl of that age who might be interested in obtaining a newspaper route, call the Bonita Circulation Department at (714) 984-2468, 8 a.m.-5 p.m. weekdays.

Bonita publishes the Montclair Tribune, Upland News, Cucamonga Times in Cucamonga and Alta Loma, La Verne Leader, San Dimas Press, and The Bulletin, serving Walnut, Diamond Bar and Rowland Heights.

A Woman Ought to Know

Home loan problems

Dear Anita,

I am a single woman with a good job, one I've had for several years. I've been renting all this time; now I'd like to buy a home. But my friends tell me women can't get housing loans, can this be true?

J.A., Santa Clara

Dear J.A.,

Your friends are giving you an accurate picture of the situation for all too many women until very recently. Fortunately for you and for other women, married or single, there have been some important legal changes.

A 1974 amendment to the Fair Housing Act forbids sex discrimination in authorizing loans. In addition, federal civil rights laws require the same mortgage - loans standards for women and for men. So it is no longer allowable for a lending institution to refuse a housing loan to a woman if a man with the same stable income and resources could qualify.

In the past, it has often been difficult for a single woman, however stable her job, and however high her income, to obtain a mortgage loan when she wanted to buy a home. Since home ownership builds capital and provides important tax relief, in addition to its role as part of the American dream, the inequities for women were significant.

Tell your friends about the legal changes. Your married friends will be interested to know that the law now requires that the entire income of both husband and wife must be included in determining qualifications for a housing loan. This is another important change; lending institutions used to be free to count a percentage, or none, of the wife's income.

Anita Miller

Dear Anita,

My question concerns men and women in prisons, or rather on parole. I was recently very surprised to learn that the Adult Authority, California's parole board, has nothing to do with the parole of women. Who decides women's parole? Surely there are not two parole boards?

C.M., Los Angeles

Dear C.M.,

Yes, as a matter of fact, there are two different parole boards in California, one for men and one for women. Our state is the last state in the nation to maintain two parole boards; all other states with parole boards have abolished their separate women's boards, and jurisdiction over both men and women is placed in one single parole authority.

The California Adult Authority is the parole board for men. It sets standards and rules on each individual's case. It decides when and if to parole, the length of parole, and once the man is out of prison and "on parole," whether or not he should be continued on parole. If he violates parole or commits new crimes, the Adult Authority also decides whether or not to revoke his parole and return him to prison.

The California Women's Board of Terms and Parole has the same duties and responsibilities over the parole of women as the Adult Authority has over the parole of men. Years ago, when the women's board was provided for by statute (P.C. 6036), the feeling was that women's criminality was different, and they could best be served by their own board. However, today many people are pointing out that different standards of behavior have grown up around the two-board system. Too often this results in a "protective" approach treatment of women, in practice "protects" them for services available to men.

Anita Miller

Dear Anita,

Two years ago a group of women were laid off from our jobs. We thought we'd been dealt with unfairly, and we filed a complaint with EEOC. All we've heard in almost two years is a form letter asking if we want to keep the plaint active. What's the matter?

A.J., Los Angeles

Dear A.J.,

The major thing that's the matter is the tremendous backlog of cases piled up with the federal Equal Employment Opportunity Commission. Reports indicate that some 10,000 cases, or a three-year workload, are on file with EEOC.

EEOC is responsible for regulation of Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, and of the amendments made in 1972. Collectively, these laws prohibit discrimination in terms and conditions of employment on the basis of sex, as well as race, color, religion, or national origin.

The powers of EEOC cover suing for back wages, in the event they judge that you and your former coworkers have indeed been subjected to discrimination on the basis of sex.

Your frustration with the slowness of the proceedings is something you should share with your federal legislators, your senators and representatives in Congress. Citizens must indicate that they expect government agencies to carry out their work.

Marigolds

If you are looking for bright colors and neat plants for your flower beds or containers, look no further than the several marigold and zinnia varieties on the market. Your local nurseryman can tell you which are the dwarf varieties and which will serve best as background plantings.

Take a trip to the nursery to see the single and double zinnias, the crested dwarf French marigolds, the cactus flowered zinnias and the fully double American marigolds.

Fern growers plan Exotic Plant Show

Members of the largest fern growers group in the United States, the Los Angeles International Fern Society, already are busy with plans for their 13th Annual Fern and Exotic Plant Show to be held July 31 and Aug. 1 at the Los Angeles County Fairgrounds at Pomona.

More than 50 members of the society already have accepted assignments related to staging the giant horticultural display from the show committee headed by Larry McCullah, Fullerton steam engineer.

Those serving on the key show committee include ornamental horticulturists, professional nurserymen, botany and plant instructors, fern hobbyists with prize greenhouses of their own and beginning gardeners with just the start of a fern garden.

A number of plant demonstrations are planned for this summer's fern show including the first detailed explanation presented on a large scale basis of the mystery of fern tissue culture.

There still are openings for individual displays of fern and exotic plants for the show. Educational displays have been tentatively entered by approximately 10 high school and college horticultural classes as a school project. However, all space devoted to commercial displays has already been reserved. There is a waiting list in this division.

You do not have to be a member of the Los Angeles International Fern Society to enter the show. Unusual plants, a new planter mix and publications may be purchased at the show.

Don't cut back bulb top

Once the bloom is off the daffodils and other spring-flowering bulbs, the temptation is to cut back the dropping tops. This temptation should be deferred — until the foliage turns brown and dies back naturally. The nutrients in the tops are returned and stored in the bulb. Prematurely cutting back the foliage will not permit the bulb to ripen naturally — and will rob you of the expected beauty the following year. When the bulbs are near the end of bloom supply them with a feeding of bone meal. It will help to give more and better blossoms next year.

CITY OF MONTCLAIR
NOTICE INVITING BIDS

Sealed proposals will be received at the Office of the City Clerk, City Hall, Montclair, California, until 10:00 a.m. on Tuesday, June 15, 1976, in the matter of the construction of PCC curb only for curb returns; 18" gutter, PCC curb only, 6" PCC curb and 18" gutter; 6" PCC curb and 6" gutter; 8" PCC curb and 18" gutter; 10" PCC curb and 18" gutter only; variable PCC curb and 18" gutter; 4" PCC sidewalk; 6" PCC driveway approaches; and 8" PCC cross - gutter for a twelve month period beginning July 1, 1976, and ending June 30, 1977, in the City of Montclair, California, as ordered from time to time by the City Engineer of the City of Montclair.

The Council hereby invites sealed bids and proposals for doing the work described in City Engineer's Project O.E. No. 10 and providing for the construction of:

1. PCC curb only for curb returns
2. PCC curb only
3. 6" PCC curb and 18" gutter
4. 6" PCC curb and 6" gutter
5. 8" PCC curb and 18" gutter
6. 10" PCC curb and 18" gutter
7. Variable PCC curb and 18" gutter
8. 18" gutter only
9. 4" PCC sidewalk
10. 6" PCC drive approaches
11. 8" PCC cross - gutter

The land upon which the work will be done will be prepared to the required grade to within 1/10 of a foot either above or below grade by the City of Montclair before the contractor commences his work under this contract. The contractor will install all work to required grade as established by the City. Contractor will include in his bid all necessary epoxy for gluing gutter to existing curb. Epoxy to be Hi Bond 210 or equal.

The proposals will be publicly opened and read in the Council Chambers, 5111 Benito Street, Montclair, California, at 10:00 o'clock a.m. on the date above mentioned. Plans and specifications and all contract documents may be obtained at the Office of the City Engineer, City Hall, 5111 Benito Street, Montclair, California. A non-refundable deposit of $5.00 for each set of specifications with accompanying drawings will be required.

Each proposal must be accompanied by a certified check or bid bond in the amount of One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00) as a guarantee that the bidder, if the award is made to him in accordance with the terms of his proposal, will promptly execute a contract in the required form, secure payment of workmen's compensation insurance, and furnish a satisfactory faithful performance bond and a labor and material bond. Each of said bonds shall be in the sum of Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000). In addition to the above and if requested by the City, the bidder shall furnish a financial statement of recent date. Failure to comply with this requirement will render a bid informal and shall be sufficient cause for rejection.

This contract is a so-called "Open-End Contract" for the work to be done as stated above, but not to exceed the amount of $10,000.00 ordered and not completed at any one time. This call for bids contemplates that purchase orders shall be issued to the contractor receiving the award of contract stating the location and classification of the actual work to be performed on each job.

The contract, however, does not prohibit the City of Montclair from contracting with others to perform any specific project which may involve the same type of work involved in this contract. This contract simply provides the City of Montclair an offer of a unit price structure against which orders may be issued in accordance with the proposal and these specifications.

Although it is understood that any or all bids may be rejected for various reasons, it is further understood that insofar as calculating the lowest bid in the contract the following formula will be applied by the City Engineer:

(a) Each item in the proposal has been assigned a weighted percentage figure. All these percentage figures total 100%. These percentage figures represent the City Engineer's best estimate based upon his experience of the relative importance or frequency an item will be used under this contract within a one year period.

(b) The percentage figure assigned to an item multiplied by the unit price shall be designated the weighted bid for the item, and the weighted bid shall be used only for the purpose of calculating the lowest bid. The total of all the weighted bids shall be the figure used in determining the lowest total bid.

(c) Besides the total of all the weighted bids, the City Engineer may take into consideration unbalancing of any item bid. By unbalancing of an item bid, it is understood that it means bidding an unreasonably high price on an item compared with its going market price when such item is assigned a low weighted percentage figure.

It shall be mandatory upon the contractor to whom the contract is awarded, and upon all subcontractors under him, to pay not less than the general prevailing rate of wages to all workmen employed in the execution of the contract pursuant to the provisions of Section 1770 to 1780 inclusive of the Labor Code of the State of California. The City Council of the City of Montclair has ascertained and adopted the general prevailing rate of hourly wages for week days and for Saturday, Sunday, Legal Holidays and overtime work for each craft of type of workman needed to execute the proposed contract and it is on file in the Office of the City Clerk.

Each bid shall be made out on forms to be obtained at the Office of the City Engineer of the City of Montclair and must be accompanied by a certified check or bidder's bond in the amount of One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00), made payable to the order of the City of Montclair; and shall be sealed and filed with the City Clerk of the City of Montclair at the City Hall of the City of Montclair, on or before 10:00 a.m. on the day first hereinabove mentioned.

The words "Bid: Proposal for Construction of Project O.E. No. 10 to be Opened 10:00 A.M. June 15, 1976" shall appear on the envelope of each sealed bid. Said bid shall be addressed to the City Clerk, City Hall, Montclair, California.

The City Council of the City of Montclair reserves the right to reject any and all bids, to waive any informality in a bid and to make awards as the interest of the City may require. This notice is given by order of the Council of the City of Montclair, California.

Macaroni salad in new garb

Switch to varied vegetables

A well-seasoned macaroni salad takes on new flavor by varying the fresh vegetables you put in it. In place of celery, and green pepper, add equal amounts of cucumber and radish or tomatoes and cooked green beans to your macaroni. Cooked peas and pimiento also offer another easy taste change. Some people like a mayonnaise dressing.

Macaroni Vegetable Salad

2 cups elbow macaroni (8 ounces)
1 tablespoon salt
3 quarts boiling water
½ cup each; diced celery, diced green pepper
½ cup shredded carrot
¼ cup finely chopped onion
2/3 cup mayonnaise
1 tablespoon lemon juice
½ teasoon salt
¼ teaspoon each: pepper, dry mustard

Gradually add macaroni and 1 tablespoon salt to rapidly boiling water so that water continues to boil. Cook uncovered, stirring occasionally, until tender. Drain in colander. Rinse with cold water; drain again.

Combine macaroni with remaining ingredients; toss lightly and chill. For a picnic turn into chilled wide-mouth vacuum jug. At home, serve on crisp lettuce leaves, garnished with additional shredded carrot, as desired. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

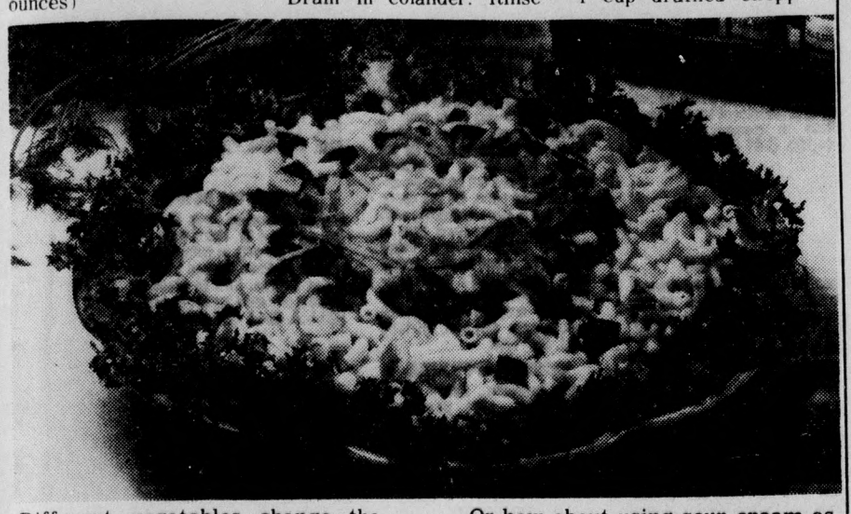

Quick Noodle Bake

8 ounces wide egg noodles (about 4 cups)
1 tablespoon salt
3 quarts boiling water
1 cup drained chopped sweet mixed pickles
3 cans (8 ounces each) tomato sauce
½ teaspoon celery salt
¼ teaspoon pepper
Shredded sharp Cheddar cheese

Gradually add noodles and salt to rapidly boiling water so that water continues to boil. Cook uncovered, stirring occasionally, until tender. Drain in colander.

Combine noodles with pickles, tomato sauce and seasonings in lightly greased one and one-half quart casserole; top generously with cheese. Bake, covered, in 375-degree oven 20 to 25 minutes or until sauce is bubbling. Serve with grilled hamburgers or frankfurters, as desired. Makes 4 servings.

hamburgers or frankfurters, as desired. Makes 4 servings.

Different vegetables change the flavor of macaroni salad. Why not try using cucumber, radishes or tomatoes and cooked green beans?

Or how about using sour cream as the dressing? And then what about using cooked peas and pimiento?

Tips on dairy products

Watching food costs? Fresh milk, regular or cultured, costs a little more than milk reconstituted from dried or canned forms. Milk and dairy foods form one of the Four Food Group system for balancing the diet. Others include the meat group, vegetable-fruit group and bread-cereal group.

In 1956 every man, woman and child in the country consumer approximately eight pounds of all types of cheese except cottage cheese. Consumption increased to 14½ pounds in 1974. Market watchers predict that by 1980 the figure will rise to nearly 17 pounds per person. By 1980 cottage cheese consumption is expected to increase 25 per cent over the 5½ pounds now consumer per person.

...lth Tips

How to take temperature

EDITOR'S NOTE: Health Tips is a column of the California Medical Education and Research Foundation, prepared and edited by physician members of the California Medical Association. It is reprinted by this newspaper as a public service.

If someone in your household is ill and you phone your doctor to discuss the problem, your doctor will probably want to know if the patient has a fever. He or she may also ask about the pulse rate and the rate of breathing (respiration rate).

Every household should have a clinical thermometer so that a temperature can be taken accurately. It is best to buy one with a bulb-like end rather than a slender one since the former can be used to take temperature either by mouth or rectum. All babies must have their temperatures taken rectally. Most young persons and adults can have their temperatures taken by mouth. Adults who have trouble breathing through their nose (and thus cannot keep their mouths closed) or who are extremely ill or unconscious will probably need to have their temperature taken rectally. An average normal temperature by mouth is 98.6 degrees; rectally, normal is 99.6 degrees.

If you are taking a temperature by mouth be sure that the patient has not had anything to eat or drink for at least a half hour. The thermomometer should read below 96 degrees before you insert it; if necessary, shake it down to that level. Place the end of the thermometer in the patient's mouth. well under the tongue and a little to one side. Leave it in the mouth for a full three minutes.

To take a temperature rectally, have adults lie on their side, infants on their stomach. Dip the thermometer into a little vaseline or cold cream. If the patients are capable of understanding, tell them what you are going to do. Spread the cheeks of the buttocks so you can see the opening of the rectum and insert the bulb end of the thermometer about one half to three fourths of an inch.

Do not leave the patient during the three minutes that the thermometer is in place. After you remove the thermometer wipe it off with a tissue before trying to read it.

Read the thermometer promptly after you have removed it. Hold the thermometer at eye level and turn it between your fingers until you can see the silver line. Above the silver line you will find a scale with long lines representing one degree and shorter lines representing two-tenths of a degree. Below the silver line are printed only the even numbers in the temperature range: 96, 98, 100, etc. When you have matched the position of the silver line with the numerical scale, you have the patient's temperature. Write it down, indicating the time at which it was taken. Then wash the thermometer with soap and cool water.

Pulse rate reflects the number of times a person's heart beats per minute. To take this rate as well as the respiration rate, you will need a clock or watch with a second hand. Have the patient's arm in a relaxed position and turn his or her hand so that the thumbnail faces the ceiling. Place your two middle fingers on the thumb side of the patient's wrist, in the hollow space between the tendons and the wristbone. When you feel the pulse, count the number of beats for 30 seconds. Double that count and you will have the number of beats per minute.

After you have taken the pulse rate and while you are still holding the patient's wrist, check the respiration rate. Patients are less likely to change their breathing rate if they think you are still taking their pulse. In checking breathing rate, count the rise and fall of the patient's chest as one breath. Clock this for 30 seconds, double the number of breaths you have counted in this time and you have the respiration rate.

As you did with the temperature, write down the rates you have counted and the time taken. Your doctor may want you to check all three clinical items at various times during the day so be sure you keep complete and accurate records.

Campaign posters prohibited

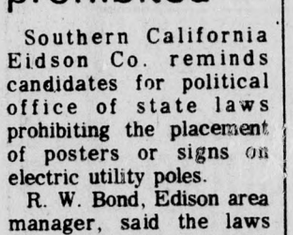

Southern California Eidson Co. reminds candidates for political office of state laws prohibiting the placement of posters or signs on electric utility poles.

R. W. Bond, Edison area manager, said the laws serve to protect the health and safety of utility linemen working on poles, as well as the rights of private property owners.

"The placement of posters on utility poles can create a safety hazard which could result in serious injury to a lineman," Bond said.

Bond says the California Penal Code makes it a misdemeanor for any person to place advertisement on private property without the consent of the owner.

Persons campaigning for elective office and organizations sponsoring events should place signs on the homes of their supporters, Bond suggested.
